Re: ACR 112 (Portantino/Smyth)
Cuss Free Week -- First Week of March

Dear Assemblymember Anthony Portantino:

I am a student or an adult and a member of the No Cussing Club which formed in 2007. McKay Hatch from South Pasadena, then 14-years old, started the No Cussing Club on his junior high campus after noticing many of his peers using cusswords and foul language. This creates an environment of bullying, rudeness, and disharmony among students. The No Cussing Club formed on the premise that if students could say no to cussing, they would find it easier to stay away from drugs and violence and focus on their positive aspirations and goals.

Today, No Cussing Clubs are in all 50 states with more than 100 clubs in schools and churches worldwide and 35,000 online members.

ACR 112 (Portantino/Smyth) has been introduced to designate the first week of March of each year as Cuss Free Week in California. A copy of the resolution is enclosed for your review.

As a reminder of Cuss Free Week's motto to "leave people better than you found them", I am enclosing a label that can be placed on a jar in your home or office. Participants who slip with foul language during that week may place money in the jar for donation to a local charity or non-profit social program of your choice. On behalf of the No Cussing Club, I urge your support.

Sincerely,

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 112—Relative to Cuss Free Week.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

ACR 112, as introduced, Portantino. Cuss Free Week.

This measure would designate the first week of March of each year as Cuss Free Week.

Fiscal committee: no.

1 WHEREAS, On June 1, 2007, then 14-year old McKay Hatch
2 founded the No Cussing Club at his South Pasadena junior high 3 school after noticing many of his peers were using cusswords and 4 foul language that created an environment of rudeness and 5 disharmony towards others on his campus. McKay reasoned that 6 if pupils could say no to cussing, it would be easier to stay away 7 from drugs, violence, and pornography and turn their focus to 8 positive aspirations and goals. “Leave people better than you found 9 them” became the No Cussing Club’s active motto; and 10 WHEREAS, Upon founding the No Cussing Club, 50 pupils
11 immediately joined and membership rapidly spread to other 12 schools, communities, states, and countries. By 2009, the No
13 Cussing Challenge had grown to 100 clubs in schools and churches 14 worldwide, with 35,000 online members in 50 states and the 15 countries of Argentina, Australia, Austria, Canada, China, France, 16 Germany, India, Indonesia, Italy, Israel, Japan, Mexico, New

1 Zealand, Nigeria, Philippines, Spain, Saudi Arabia, Scotland, South
2 Korea, and the United Kingdom. Its Internet Web site receives 3 thousands of hits per day with hundreds of parents, teens, and 4 children taking the No Cussing Challenge online; and

5 WHEREAS, While South Pasadena is not the first community
6 to confront a tradition of rude language, for example, in 2009 Saint 7 Charles, a suburb of Saint Louis, Missouri proposed a ban on 8 swearing in bars, and in 2008, hip-hop mogul Russell Simmons
9 called for an industrywide ban on racially and sexually charged
10 epithets, the No Cussing Club created a process to help convert 11 foul language to charitable actions that would raise our spirits in 12 times of economic uncertainty and frustration; and

13 WHEREAS, Cusswords and aggressive language are used by 14 bullies to intimidate their victims. To counter this, the No Cussing 15 Club offers a curriculum for schools that can be downloaded from 16 their Internet Web site and used to assist teachers and pupils to 17 combat bullying and cyber bullying; and

18 WHEREAS, The No Cussing Challenge encourages members
19 of offices, homes, and schools to place money in a jar with a 20 custom-made label available from their Internet Web site,
21 www.nocussing.com, when foul language is used and donate 22 collected funds to charity. This practice not only helps raise 23 awareness of our wide use of negative language and how it affects 24 our spirits, but inspires redeemable actions that benefit charities 25 and nonprofit social programs; and

26 WHEREAS, The No Cussing Club has been endorsed by 27 government officials at all levels with some creating cuss-free 28 zones in their jurisdictions. Promoting the notion that words are 29 powerful tools that express how we feel about ourselves and the 30 world we live in, the No Cussing Challenge is a reminder that our 31 ability to uplift, encourage, and motivate others and improve our 32 community starts with the words we use and actions we take; and

33 WHEREAS, The California Legislature invites the people of 34 this state to take the No Cussing Challenge each year during the 35 first week of March to improve our relationships, to set a tone of 36 harmony and connectedness in our communities, and to inspire
37 ourselves to higher endeavors; now, therefore, be it

38 Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California, the Senate
39 thereof concurring, That the Legislature designate the first week
40 of March of each year as Cuss Free Week; and be it further
